

POLICE PAY HONOR TO LONE GOLD STAR

P. J. Flynn, Only Member of Force to Die Abroad, Has Military Funeral

WAR MOTHERS PRESENT

Both military and police honors were accorded the body of Patrick J. Flynn, 1815 McKean street, at funeral services held from his late home at 10 o'clock this morning.

The services were in charge of members of Warner Post, No. 70, American Legion, and the cortege was headed by a detail of several hundred police from the First division. The police contingent was led by Captain Graham.

Flynn died of pneumonia while in the service overseas. He was the only member of the Philadelphia police to die while serving abroad. He was with the Military Police.

A large crowd attended services in St. Thomas' Roman Catholic Church, Eighteenth and Morris streets. In the procession to Holy Cross Cemetery were several War Mothers headed by Mrs. Mary Deuling, 39 Paxon street, West Philadelphia.

At St. Stephen's Church, Ninetown, this afternoon, there will be services over the body of Private James C. Kane, of the 109th Infantry. Services for Private Joseph T. Agostini, of the 317th Infantry, were held this morning at St. Stephen's Catholic Church. Members of the Sergeant Hamilton Fish Post, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, paid tribute to Private Agostini, whose home was at 1915 Rowan street, this morning, and will attend the funeral of Private Kane this afternoon.

The funeral of W. Harry Stanley, of Company I, 315th Infantry, will be held in the afternoon from the residence of his uncle, Charles Hutchinson, 1438 North Eighteenth street. Members of the Holstein McHade Post, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will attend. The body will be buried in Hillside Cemetery. Stanley was wounded on October 5, 1918, and died in a field hospital. He has left a widow, Mrs. Alice V. Stanley.

WHEEL PUMP MAN IS GIVEN 3 MONTHS

John J. McGoldrick Also Fined $250 as Principal in Inn Gambling Game

CHIDED FOR HIS RETICENCE

John J. McGoldrick, proprietor of the Wheel Pump Hotel, was sentenced to three months in jail and fined $250 and costs today in Norristown by President Judge Swartz.

McGoldrick was convicted at the last term of Criminal Court as a principal in a gambling game conducted in his hotel in Springfield Township, when it was raided by the State Police. Eighty-eight "patrons" were caught at the time.

Since the raid McGoldrick has been out of jail on $2500 bail. Immediately after sentence today he was ordered into the custody of Sheriff Hamilton.

Might Have Escaped Jail Judge Swartz made it plain in imposing sentence that the jail part might have been omitted had McGoldrick thrown himself on the mercy of the Court, in view of facts, and furnished the information which would have uncovered and brought to light the men behind the game.

Attorney High of Jenkintown, in appealing for leniency, said it was a case. In his opinion, where mercy could well be bestowed. He presented a petition signed by McGoldrick's neighbors in Jenkintown, where he was formerly a contractor, and the surrounding district, asking a suspension of the jail sentence.

"The overwhelming petition," said Judge Swartz, "must be refused, not only that punishment may be meted out to the guilty, but as a warning to others."

District Attorney Renninger, of Glenside, who presented the case, said he had no desire to oppose clemency. "I am thoroughly convinced that the verdict was right," said Judge Swartz.

"and that any man of ordinary intelligence could not fail to see that his hotel was being used for gambling purposes. From his manner on the stand I am sure he is a man of above ordinary intelligence."

Should Have Pleaded Guilty "I thought he should have entered a plea of guilty and put himself on record as furnishing the Court with information as to who was operating the gambling place. He showed that he knew this by what he said to the officer, but he refused to give any information."

Judge Miller was on the bench, and concurred in all that Judge Swartz said. McGoldrick said nothing. He changed color somewhat, and was slightly nervous when he was ordered to jail.

According to the evidence at the trial, McGoldrick and his wife leased the room in the hotel to "parties unknown" for $100 a month. A petition for a new trial, which was refused, was the reason McGoldrick did not go to jail immediately after his conviction.

$58 London Overcoats

There's great demand for these imported Overcoats—made in London of warm Scotch overcoatings. They are exceedingly smart, and the price is one-third less than the same grade cost last year. Think of it—$58.00.

DURING the closing months of 1920 and the opening months of 1921, we sacrificed hundreds of thousands of dollars of legitimate profits and have made many radical reductions since, to help along a general price-lowering movement. In one year's time wholesale and retail prices have come down an average of one-third. Prices are now more nearly on a stabilized basis than for several years past. When two dollars buys as much as three dollars bought one short year ago, it is safe and wise, and helpful to the general welfare of the community and the country, to buy ALL YOU NEED or all you can afford to buy. Our unlimited buying power commands the lowest price and insures the utmost advantage wherever immediate cash is needed for good merchandise. May we not serve you TO-MORROW?

Only the boundaries of the world can limit the spread of the New Improved Gillette

IN the month of August, 335,000 New Improved Gillettes were shipped to England, France, Holland, Belgium, Denmark and Italy.

Forerunners of nobody knows how many of these improved shaving instruments that will go to the remotest part of the earth as fast as they can be made.

No new invention has ever had such immediate world-wide demand.

Another picture of what travelers have so often said—that Gillette is the best known article of any kind used anywhere by anyone.

For instance, Gillette Blades in foreign countries. Where they cost two to ten times as much as competitive makes. Yet over 90% of the sales are genuine Gillette Blades. And in more than one country, a gratuity from tourists in the form of Gillette Blades is more acceptable than money.

By now, many of your very own neighbors express their enthusiasm over the real shaving advance brought to them by the New Improved Gillette.

Not long before you can go anywhere in the world and hear the same thing.

Important about the New Improved Gillette—A Word about the Blades

Most men prefer to screw the razor up tight to get the most satisfactory shave. Gillette deems it proper to ask the public to use Gillette Blades only in genuine Gillette Razors.

The Gillette Blade and Gillette Razor are developed to work together. No Gillette Blade can deliver its full shaving quality unless used in a genuine Gillette Razor—built by Gillette, in the Gillette way and up to Gillette standards.
